After Service of an Eviction Action: You have been served with an eviction action, in your documents there is a notice of postponement, that may apply to you. Please read your documents carefully and follow the notification instructions. If you did not receive the Notice of postponement of eviction form, it is available on the court's website at www.jp.pima.gov

After a Hearing: If judgment is granted for the Plaintiff (landlord), you may be required to vacate your home five (5) days after the Court hearing. If you have been impacted by the Coronavirus you may qualify for delay in enforcement. Please refer to the Notice of Postponement of Eviction Action Form, it is available on the court's website at www.jp.pima.gov. A money judgment, enforceable by garnishment or other legal attachment, may also be entered against you.
